BEIJING, Aug. 16 (Xinhua) - China's Ministry of Commerce (MOC) announced that the State Council, China's Cabinet, has appointed Gao Hucheng, also vice minister of commerce, as the MOC International Trade Representative (国际贸易谈判副代表). Zhong Shan, vice-minister of commerce, and Chong Quan, former assistant to the minister of commerce, were appointed as Deputy International Trade Representatives, a statement posted on the MOC website said. The Trade Representative will mainly take charge of China's major multilateral or bilateral economic and trade negotiations, and coordinating stances from companies at home. The Deputy Trade Representatives will assist him in these negotiations, the statement said. The mechanism of trade representatives comes in the wake of increasing trade frictions that China has been experiencing since the global financial crisis began, said the statement. China faced 116 trade friction-related cases last year, and their total value reached 12.7 billion US dollars, according to the MOC data. The data also shows that China's exports last year accounted for only 9.6 per cent of world exports, but the country faced 40 per cent of all anti-dumping probes and 75 per cent of all anti-subsidy investigations throughout the world. (XNA, 16 Aug 10)

Beijing, Aug. 5 (Xinhua) - The number of China's centrally-administered state-owned enterprises (SOEs) was reduced to 123, from 125, after two mergers were approved by the State Council.

China National Real Estate Development Group Corporation was merged into China Communications Construction Company Limited (CCGRP) and became a wholly-owned subsidiary of CCGRP, while Shanghai Ship and Shipping Research Institute became a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Shipping (Group) Company following the merger. Li Rongrong, chairman of the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission said in late July that the Chinese government sought to reduce the number of SOEs to less than 100 while focusing on creating 30-50 large groups with strong international competitiveness by the end of 2010. However, he said SOEs should retain their absolute dominance in important industries such as electric power and the power grid, petroleum and chemicals, telecommunications, coal, aviation, and shipping. SHANGHAI (Reuters) - Anshan Steel Group has received approval from China's state asset regulator to merge with Panzhihua Steel, paving the way to forge the biggest steelmaker in China. Shares of the listed units, Angang Steel Co and PZH Steel, were suspended from trading on Monday [24 May 2010], fuelling expectations a long-rumored merger of the two groups would soon be announced. China's State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission (SASAC) has approved the Anshan-Panzhihua deal, the listed companies said in a statement. The deal calls for establishing a new state-owned firm, Angang New Co, that will wholly own Pangang Group and Anshan Steel Group, the statement said.
